

Weekly on Saturday morning at Pomerado Hospital.

The coffee is free and breakfast is priced nicely. Some arrive as early as 7:15 am, and most are there by 7:30 am. We start promptly at 8:00 am and end with prayer just before 9:00 am. The early birds solve most of the world's problems before 8:00 am. Of course there is ample time to update and provide advice to the Padres and Chargers. Coming late means you will likely find no more apple fritters. Too bad, huh.

Oh yeah, bring your Bible.
